William Resch

Transportation Project Specialist

(███████) • reschw04@gmail.com • www.linkedin.com/in/william-a-resch

Forward-thinking leader with proven track record of driving team performance and achieving organizational goals. Proactive in fostering collaborative and dynamic work environment, ensuring clear communication and goal alignment. Optimistic and Assertive. Diverse knowledge of project finance, transportation planning and commercial development sectors. Specific experience in freight/passenger rail, seaports, airports, highways, transit services and commercial development.

Experience

SEP '19 - PRESENT

Head of Project Development │ Build America Bureau, West Palm Beach, FL/Washington, DC (Hybrid)

- Responsible for the development of a $50B+ project finance and private activity bond pipeline
- Lead, organize, and develop strategic client relationships through strategic communication with public and private transportation stakeholders nationwide
- Generate project momentum within the Department of Transportation's multiple modal administrations via the development and execution of project-specific implementation and compliance plans
- Manage cross-functional teams to deliver high-quality project scopes, fee estimates, and analytical summaries, incorporating legal, economic, financial and feasibility analyses

OCT '22 - MAR '23

Policy Analyst │ Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC

- Policy Analyst on Detail to the Budget Analysis Branch with a focus on federal credit reform budgeting and policy analysis related to the 2024 President's Budget. Responsible for a muti-agency portfolio including Veterans Affairs, Homeland Security, Defense, Commerce, Interior, Housing and Urban Development. Health and Human Services and Treasury.

MAY '14 - SEP '19

Associate │ Chambers Conlon & Hartwell | Seneca Group [Transportation] Consulting, Washington, DC

- Project lead on multiple successful $20M+ infrastructure grant applications (INFRA, BUILD (TIGER), CRISI including preparation of competitive economic analyses
- Represented multiple clients in RRIF loan negotiations before the U.S. Department of Transportation. Experienced with federal environmental compliance (NEPA), Buy-America(n) (BABA) program requirements and waivers

Education

MAY '15

Master of Science in Public Policy | Rochester Institute of Technology

Key Skills

Public Finance & Project Funding (Impact Fees, Bonds, Grants, Loans, Strategic Planning)

Technical Analysis & Data Interpretation (Economic/Demographic Projections, Ridership Analysis, Financial Modeling)

Client Presentations & Stakeholder Engagement (Elected Officials, Public Agencies, Industry Relationships)

Project Management & Team Leadership (Hard and Soft Management Skills, Insightful, Diplomatic)