Redistricting Requirements

- After each Census, political boundaries at all levels (federal, state, local) are reviewed and undergo a process by which adjustments are made to reflect population changes over the previous decade.
- Chapter 124.03(3), Florida Statutes, states that:
 - The board of county commissioners shall from time to time, fix the boundaries of the above districts so as to keep them as nearly equal in proportion to population as possible; provided, that changes made in the boundaries of county commissioner districts pursuant to this section shall be made only in odd-numbered years.
- Due to delays in the delivery of Census data, this cycle's redistricting process is significantly expedited in order to meet statutory deadlines.

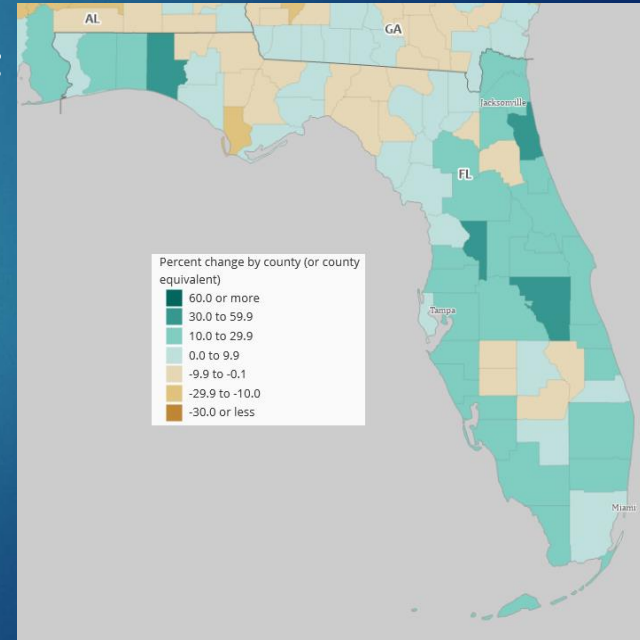

National Picture

- U.S. Population = 331,449,281
 - Increase of 22.7 million from 2010, or 7.4%
 - By comparison, Florida grew by 14.56% over this period
 - Four states > 20 million (up from two states in 2010)

Florida Highlights

- Population = 21,538,187
 - Increase of 2.73 million from 2010, or 14.56%
- Nearly 1.1 million of the State's increase of 2.7 million came from the five most populated counties: Miami-Dade, Broward, Palm Beach, Hillsborough and Orange.
 - But in terms of percentage increases, the most rapidly growing areas of the State were clustered in central Florida and areas near Jacksonville and a couple of counties in the panhandle.
