Channell Wilkins, MPA, CCAP

Mr. Wilkins is the Director of Palm Beach County's Community Services Department. He has been in public service most of his career and has also worked in the private and non-profit sectors. He worked at the Municipal, County and State levels before going to the federal government to run the Office of Head Start as the Associate Commissioner. The principle deliverables have always been to improve the outcomes for the population(s) served while ensuring the most cost effective and technology driven solutions are used by the organization. This balance of service to those in need and those paying the tab keeps him thriving for new innovations and ways to solve problems. Currently, he is the Director of Community Services for Palm Beach County and active in many civic and professional organizations.
