Bring your neighbors and join Palm Beach County Mayor Melissa McKinlay and Countywide Community Revitalization Team (CCRT) members for a public meeting hosted by the Office of Community Revitalization (OCR) on Tuesday, February 20, beginning at 6 p.m. This meeting will focus on neighborhood safety and community revitalization efforts. Mayor Melissa McKinlay will share her views on community revitalization and respond to questions from the audience. Interested residents are encouraged to email questions to ocrnews@pbcgov.org prior to the meeting.

The evening's agenda will include an engaging community conversation on neighborhood safety facilitated by PBSO Chief Deputy Michael Gauger. We want to hear about what community safety means to you, your experiences, your challenges and your ideas for preventing violence and brainstorm ways we can work together to build safe neighborhoods for everyone. The agenda will also include an inspiring mini workshop on Community Revitalization: Effective Leadership & Emerging Trends facilitated by Darrel B. Searcy, Founder and CEO of Chandler Campbelle and Daschle. This workshop will provide an overview of Community Revitalization and leadership strategies residents can use to engage effectively in the revitalization process, while learning about the latest trends and leading-edge practices.

This public meeting is an opportunity to meet the mayor, join the conversation on neighborhood safety, learn about community revitalization and leadership strategies, and network with county agencies, OCR partners, and other community leaders who, like yourself, are making a difference in their community.

Join us in the conversation. We look forward to seeing you and your neighbors!
