Description:

This presentation reviews the basics of human trafficking including definitions of the different types of trafficking and various forms of abuse. Presentation will address risk factors and victim vulnerabilities. Attendees will gain an understanding of how to identify victims of human trafficking by reviewing warning signs and appropriate questions to ask to potential victims. Case examples will be reviewed and explored to assist providers in understanding how to apply what is taught in training into their clinical practice. Attendees will review the barriers to victims reporting, potential trauma reactions victims may experience and relevant treatment options.

Learning Objectives:

At the conclusion of the training, participants will be able to:

1. Define Human Trafficking & it's prevalence within Florida
2. Recognize the dynamics of HT & impact on victims
3. Establish Effective treatment options and safety planning in clinical practice

Presenters:

Kelly Dambra received her undergraduate degree in psychology (minor in criminal justice) from Nova Southeastern University and her Master's degree in Clinical Psychology from the University of Central Florida. She has spent the last 7 years treating trauma victims of all violent crimes at Palm Beach County Victim Services and Rape Crisis Center. Along with individual therapy sessions, Kelly also leads the domestic violence support groups and FTOP Women's Group.

Christel Bryan, a licensed mental health therapist holds a Bachelor's in Psychology with a minor in Sociology from Florida Atlantic University and a Master's in Clinical Mental Health Counseling from Nova Southeastern University. She's a licensed therapist with extensive trauma therapy experience who has also work with neglected and abused teens in Florida's foster care system. Christel has been with PBC Victim Services and Rape Crisis Center since November 2019, providing therapy for trauma victims of violent crimes and leading support groups for survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault.
